

Deep Tech Forum + Startup Showcase NYC Fall 2025

hosted by Monozukuri Ventures and New York Robotics
@ the Brooklyn Navy Yard

ABOUT DEEP TECH FORUM 2025

Monozukuri Ventures and New York Robotics are proud to announce that the Deep Tech Forum + Startup Showcase NYC 2025 will be held on Tuesday, September 23 at the Brooklyn Navy Yard — New York City's anchor for advanced manufacturing and innovation. More than 500 attendees from across the startup, corporate, investor, and public policy ecosystems are expected.

This year's theme is: "From Cost Center to Strategic Growth: How Deep Tech Is Transforming Manufacturing for the Sustainable Economy." This global event convenes startups, corporations, investors, and public-sector leaders to redefine manufacturing and logistics from a cost center into a strategic growth driver.

The event brings together 50–100 deep tech startups from North America, Japan, and Europe, alongside corporate innovation leaders, investors, and ecosystem partners, for a full day of mainstage sessions and startup exhibitions — all on a single floor at one of NYC's most iconic industrial campuses. The co-located exhibition and conference foster real-world connections between technology, strategy, and collaboration.

This Deep Tech Forum will feature an invite-only investor demo day on Monday, September 22, where selected startups from the Showcase will pitch to a curated audience of investors and strategic partners.
